IARC/NIARS (Independent Institute for Accreditation, Rating and Certification) is the main accreditation agency of the Kyrgyz Republic, licensed and recognized by the Ministry of Education and Science of the Kyrgyz Republic to conduct institutional and program accreditation processes in higher and professional education. Kyrgyzstan is a State Party to the Lisbon Recognition Convention on the Recognition of Qualifications concerning Higher Education in the European Region, an international treaty of the Council of Europe and UNESCO which establishes that qualifications issued in signatory countries should be recognized in other States of the Convention unless “substantial differences” can be demonstrated. As the national accreditation agency of a country that has acceded to and implemented the Lisbon Convention, IARC/NIARS operates within an international legal framework that supports broad acceptance and fair evaluation of degrees awarded by institutions it accredits, thereby enhancing the cross-border recognition of these academic qualifications.
